Acupuncture for Management Antonella Mei-Pochtler

Since 2003 Dr. Antonella Mei-Pochtler has authored a series of highly successful and original columns on management in the Austrian newspaper Der Standard. This volume presents a selection of these columns. From contemporary events and personal experience, Mei-Pochtler distills essential ????? and timeless ????? management topics in succinct form: strategy and leadership, organization and corporate culture, creativity and innovation. As business expert and BCG brand guru, Mei-Pochtler allows herself the luxury of stretching the boundaries of "business" to all areas of life. She translates significant trends into facts and figures and questions them with regard to positive implications for concrete action. The format of the book deliberately crosses boundaries blending words and images, rationality and emotions, logic and intuition. Here, images function as more than just the usual ornamentation or commentative accessories; like the text, they are meant to provoke and inspire.

Lyla Jackson:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Acupuncture for Management can make you sense more interested to read.
