Aos Pés de Jesus (Portuguese Edition) Reinaldo Guedes

Lucas é um médico ateu, que está passando por uma silente crise existencial, mesmo sendo diretor de um importante complexo hospitalar, ligado ao poderoso e sinistro grupo farmacêutico Alpha Rode Medical S/A. Depois de sofrer com a morte abrupta de sua mulher e filha, Lucas é convidado a fazer um pacto para se tornar em uma das pessoas mais importantes do grupo farmacêutico para o qual trabalha, mas mesmo sendo um ateu, Lucas acha estranho ter que implantar um chip em sua mão, onde consta o número 666.

Com o coração ferido e cheio de rancor, o Dr. Lucas faz um desafio a Deus e ameaça matar seu filho Jesus Cristo, caso tivesse a oportunidade de o encontrar pessoalmente. Imediatamente Lucas é envolvido em uma luz estranha, que o deixa cego por alguns instantes e quando consegue voltar a enxergar o que está ao seu redor, descobre que foi parar a mais de 2.000 anos atrás, no tempo em que Jesus Cristo estava caminhando sobre a terra. Começa a caminhada épica de um homem para encontrar Jesus Cristo e descobrir se realmente terá coragem de tentar matá-lo.

Ao mesmo tempo, a história de muitos outros personagens vai se desenrolando, como é o caso da jovem e bela Dana, que precisa fugir de casa para não ser forçada a se casar com um homem muito mais velho do que ela e no meio do caminho acaba se envolvendo em um homicídio. Além da vida de Dana, vamos mergulhar na vida da família de Jesus Cristo e dos seus discípulos, finalmente conhecendo melhor a vida e a personalidade marcante de cada uma dessas pessoas, que marcaram profundamente a história da humanidade.

Este livro visa contar a história de Jesus Cristo, a história das pessoas que o cercavam e de muitos personagens históricos, que pouco são lembrados, mas que compunham a geopolítica daquela região, mostrando a cultura, a economia, a religião e as intrigas políticas, que envolviam os personagens daquela época.
