A Merry Little Christmas (Songs of the season Book 1) Anita Higman

Franny Martin is an Oklahoma farm girl who's preparing to spend the holidays alone... again. Then Charlie Landau shows up one day, all wealth and polish, and offers to buy Franny's farm. Franny has no money to speak of, but she is clever and spirited, and she's more than happy to sell the farm and move to the city. As Sinatra croons from the radio and Christmas descends upon her charming farm, Franny teaches Charlie the curious and sometimes comical ways of country life. In the process, they unearth some discoveries of the heart—that sometimes love comes when you're least ready for it. Will the holidays bring their most impossible dreams within reach?
