Lavoro, faccio la casalinga (Italian Edition) Monica Torriani

Superati l'opprimente stereotipo della "perfetta padrona di casa" degli anni '50, l'acerrima lotta di classe con le donne manager e la suggestione evocata da "Desperate Housewives", il contesto sociale contemporaneo offre alle casalinghe una nuova prospettiva. Il cambiamento suggerisce che oggi le scelte di successo sono quelle che nascono dalla consapevolezza delle proprie priorità e dall'assunzione di precise responsabilità, sociali e personali.

Questo libro esamina da un punto di osservazione insolito i drivers delle rivoluzioni culturali che hanno contribuito a giungere a questo risultato.

La casalinga moderna ha ormai infranto gli schemi del passato e spostato il cuore della sua attività dalle faccende domestiche al problem solving. Alla luce della sorprendente attualità della sua figura, perché si ostina ancora a difendere il principio della separazione dei ruoli?

Dopo aver abbandonato i modelli ideali in voga nei decenni scorsi, è in cerca di icone femminili più glamour e compatibili con la sua forte esigenza di flessibilità. Quali sono i suoi obiettivi, fin dove vuole spingersi?

Sulla base della sua esperienza, l'autrice spiega come le Domestic Goddess riescono a coniugare la cura di se stesse, la completa disponibilità nei confronti del partner e dei figli e la gestione delle sempre più complesse dinamiche familiari. Dimostra, definizioni alla mano, che quello della casalinga è a tutti gli effetti un lavoro, a cui sempre più donne (sempre più istruite) scelgono di dedicarsi.

Infine, affronta obiettivamente il paradosso della creazione di valore contestuale alla dipendenza economica, arrivando al nocciolo del problema: come vincere anche la sfida del riconoscimento sociale della dignità professionale delle casalinghe?
