Are you ready to teach like an artist? To bring creativity to life in the classroom? In an educational era of test scores, teacher accountability, and shifting standards, many educators are worried that they don't have permission to encourage creative thinking and problem-solving in their schools. This book reminds us all that we don't need permission to do what's best for children.

By using STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts, and Mathematics) we can finally access and leverage ALL the tools in our teaching toolkits. Throughout this book you'll find:

- Practical lessons and assessments
- STEAM Strategies and
- Case Studies from a variety of schools which give you the capacity and confidence you need to make STEAM a reality, no matter what your situation.
