An appetizing guide to food shopping and eating out in the UK's capital, this expanded and updated foodie bible reveals the city's most mouthwatering gastronomic delights

Offering full details on all the city's best shops and restaurants, this popular guide to London's rich variety of international foods tells everything there is to know about eating out in the UK's impressive capital. Within its pages can be found information on the major cultures and cuisines in London; reviews of all the best restaurants, cheese shops, bakeries, and fish and meat markets; and a listing of the finest kitchen supply stores. A glossary defining common ingredients is also included, as well as where to buy ingredients in the city—from basics such as freshly baked bread, artisanal cheeses, and decent bacon to treats such as luscious mangoes, superior sushi, and handmade chocolates. With area maps showing more than 170 hand-picked food shops and eatery locations, this is an essential guide to patrolling the delicious bounty of London's streets.
