"In an age where teenagers are deeply engaged in virtual communities and social networks, they're still feeling alone and isolated. It may sound all too simple, but the truth is that you have the opportunity to make a profound impact on the lives of students with the simple act of spending time with them, one-on-one. Whether you're a volunteer or the lead youth pastor, getting some students to open up and share their lives can be a challenge. In this practical book you'll learn the importance of connecting with students on an individual basis and get helpful ideas on how to engage a variety of students in meaningful dialogue. You'll explore and learn more about connecting with six different types of students, including:

- The "No Way" Kid
- The "Not Interested" Kid
- The "Checking Things Out Kid"
- The "Stagnant" Kid
- The "Growing" Kid
- The "Looking for Ministry" Kid

Connect will walk you through the steps to lead you into relationships with students that go beyond the youth room and impact them into adulthood."
