Tuba Mirum from Requiem W.A. Mozart

Newly transcribed for 6 trombones by Gordon Cherry, principal trombone of the Vancouver Symphony. Mozart's grand, magnificent, spiritual work is scored for 5 tenor trombones and 1 bass trombone. The entire movement in the original key features not only the solo tenor trombone, but all 6 trombonists. Each part of the ensemble takes its turn in performing the solo trombone & solo vocal lines as sung by the bass, tenor, alto and soprano. This work is in a comfortable range for all parts (first part goes to one high C) as written for orchestra by Mozart and completed by his assistant Sussmeyer after Mozart's untimely death. The transcription is very tastefully done with detailed editing of phrasing and dynamics. This work of 4 minutes in length can be performed with an ensemble of 6 trombones or a trombone choir of many players. Mozart's composition is beautiful and will make a wonderful addition to your concert.
