42 Zitate großer Philosophen: Über das Leben, das Universum und den ganzen Rest (German Edition)

Gary Cox

"Gott ist tot", "Der Mensch ist das Maß aller Dinge" oder "Ich denke, also bin ich" - all dies sind Zitate großer Philosophen, die im täglichen Sprachgebrauch häufig fallen. Doch was sie eigentlich bedeuten, ist nur den wenigsten bekannt. In einem ebenso unterhaltsamen wie aufschlussreichen Streifzug durch die Philosophiegeschichte geht Gary Cox in seinem neuen Band dieser Frage auf den Grund.

Anhand 42 der wichtigsten, provokantesten, falsch zitierten und falsch verstandenen Gedanken gibt er einen kompakten Überblick über die Lehren der größten Denker und erläutert in leicht verständlicher und anregender Sprache, was mit den Zitaten ursprünglich gemeint war.

Von Douglas Adams bis Wittgenstein, von Platon bis Hegel - Gary Cox nimmt seine Leserinnen und Leser mit auf eine einzigartige Reise durch die Geschichte der Philosophie. Und er zeigt, warum es nicht nur eine Antwort auf das Leben, das Universum und den ganzen Rest geben kann.
