Chantelle Dubois needs a job. So, when her uncle Joe asks her to fill in at his diner during an emergency, she comes running. Mark Daniels is at the end of his rope. He's overworked, overtired, and overstressed at a job that he always wanted. When a call for help to fix a crashed computer comes from his uncle's business partner, Mark decides it is time to take some well-earned and much needed time off from his job. He travels to his hometown to help out at Joe's. Another emergency prolongs his stay, and Mark finds himself working alongside Chantelle to attempt the impossible. With sparks of friction between the two, can Mark and Chantelle ever run Joe's Diner as partners in peace?
