Big Game Argentina Craig Boddington

The first and only Book ever published on Big Game Hunting in Argentina; written by Craig Boddington, the world's foremost authority on the subject. This is visual and written survey of the best hunting destinations in this South American paradise. A can't miss Book for anyone who has hunted in Argentina or is considering a trip to this far away land of abundance. I took the lead now, keeping low, rifle in one hand, pack in the other, very slowly. The stags were up there, on the left side of the cut. I spied a little hump on the left slope and slid in behind it, adjusting the pack for a rest. The stags were moving now, had probably seen us. "The bigger one is on the left, 275 yards", whispered Boris. Through the words of award winning writer Craig Boddington and the images of Guillermo Zorraquin, Big Game Argentina is a unique opportunity for hunters who have not yet traveled to the tip South America to become acquainted with this very special region. It is also a chance for those who have already visited, to look back and reminisce about some of the most spectacular experiences of their hunting lives. Big Game Argentina is a 168 page visual survey of the best hunting locations, lodges and outfitters in this South American paradise, from the province of Chaco in the north all the way to the province of Rio Negro in Southern Patagonia. Take a guided tour of Estancia Alicura, Reserva La Colorada, Estancia Poitahue, Estancia San Pedro and hunt with Four Season Adventures, Golden Stag Safaris, TGB Outfitters, Argentina Sportsman and South American Adventure Safaris. Discover why Argentina is the next Big Game destination of choice.
