If you love nature and dogs, this is the book to read. It is a compilation of true stories of Gladys and her friend Jill who live in New York City. They buy a farm and share it between their families as a holiday house. Children grow up, husbands pass away, and they go to live at the farm full time together. This book makes you feel like you are visiting with them during a winter blizzard in their old New England home. Gladys paints Stillmeadow Farm with her words in such a way that you feel like you live there with the
